Description

The Königsplatz Campus in Munich opened in autumn 2022 comprises a new office and business quarter covering around 18,000 square meters in Munich's most central location. Located directly on the popular Königsplatz and surrounded by numerous museums, cafés and restaurants, the campus-style building complex is situated in a lively, urban environment. Thanks to its prime location, the location has optimal transport connections. Munich's main train station is just a few minutes' walk away.

Our meeting and event spaces stage networking as an event and ensure unforgettable events. Moving away from rigid room formats to new work settings that leave a lasting impression on your guests.
